Run no. 28: James Dixon
Time: 5.15 to 5.30 Date: Wednesday, 24.3.82:

Meet at parking-place, opposite Mobil Service Station, on right-hand side of road into Mount Edgecombe.

Run no. 27: Steve Evans & Phil Williams:

Mutters were heard about the same old run as we headed out of the car-park & along Marine Drive. But it wasn't to be as we completed the first false & check. There it was awaiting us - a decrepit one-tonner - with the curt injunction from Steve, "jump in". The only one who looked at home was Ken Reardon (just what job does he hold in the building industry?) Off we went to the junction of the Mt Edgecombe road - Umhlanga Rocks Drive - let's face it, no late starter was ever going to find us - and from there the logical & only way was down, or so we thought. Steve & Phil had done their utmost to take us down & then up, a lead which most followed but it was noted that John Orton, Geoff Taylor & one other were short-cutting the 'up' sections - using their heads they said.

Then into the village where the aforesaid 'head' system seemed to infect the front-runners & directly home they headed. Merit to those who remained on paper to the bitter end.

The rain had commenced at this stage & so straight into cars & to the Evans/Williams/Sugman / & others residence where, it has been told, the après-hach was of the highest order. Steve says he did it to educate John Becker but by all accounts seasoned campaigners such as Geoff Taylor learnt something new. Ben George says he'll discount any fees for those attempting what they learnt. For those where he has to pay a house-call to aid in
