Run No. 28 : JAMES DIXON

The area north west of the Hulett's Country Club has been the scene of many a run. I think that our pack has run there on at least four occasions. Nevertheless James managed to find something new, even if it was mainly mud. I think it must be the first time that the pack has actually been offered a choice of a long or a short run. Needless to say the short run was accepted unanimously. James succeeded in keeping the pack together even though there were a number of long fast sections. I have a strong suspicion that the Welshman and Basher Becker may have been let into a secret or two by the Hare as when things got difficult they were able to lead us back onto paper. You may wonder how Basher obtained his new name. Those of you who were fortunate enough to witness Northlands first team whip Tech first fifteen last night will have seen Basher playing some remarkable combinations of body punching on the Tech hooker.

It was indeed fortunate that Celfyn and Basher were around because at one stage your Scribe and Geoff Taylor were lost in the middle of a cane field surrounded by cane and it was only as a result of their shouting that we were able to get back onto a path. The run in followed as darkness set in. I think if the run had gone on for another five minutes we wouldn't have been able to find our way back. Perhaps we should now start carrying torches.

Thanks James for a well set run.
